

LUTHER AND LUTHERANISM

A series of talks in October 2017 in preparation for the 500th Anniversary on 31 October 2017 of the publication by Martin Luther of the Ninety-five Theses – an event that started the Reformation.

SPEAKERS

Bishop Michael Bourke -from 1996 to 2006 he was Anglican Co-Chairman of the Meissen Commission, the body which oversees the relationship between the Church of England and the Protestant Church of Germany (EKD)

Pastor Brigitte Malik - an ordained minister of the Lutheran Church of Bavaria since 1988, working in the Ludlow Team Ministry since November 2013 as part of the Partnership between the Diocese of Hereford and the Lutheran Church of Nuremburg.

The talks to be in
CHRIST CHURCH,
LONGDEN ROAD, ANNSCROFT, SY5 8AN

{There is a large car park on the Shrewsbury side of the Church}

7.15pm Coffee & biscuits

7.30pm Talk, followed by discussion

9.00pm Closure

Wed 4 Oct. 2017 Luther – the Formative Years

Wed 11 Oct. 2017 Luther – Early Lutheranism and Luther & the Bible

Wed 18 Oct. 2017 Lutheranism Today

Wed 25 Oct. 2017 Lutherans and Anglicans – some comparisons

Further details from the Rev Ian Ross, Tel: 01743 860327, e-mail: mail@fiross.plus.com